WOMAN FIGHTS NEGRO.

Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the Confederate general, and postmistress of Gainesville, Ga., fought a duel with a man whom she discovered in her room about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Longstreet was awakened by noise in the house, and getting out of hed got a pistol and went to investigate. When she entered the dining-room she saw a man trying to open a closet in which the table silver was kept. She called to him and the man turned and ran for a window. Mrs. Longstreet opened fire, and the man drew his pistol and fired once. Mrs. Longstreet fired at the fleeing man until her pistol was empty. She thinks she hit the man, as after one shot he staggered and nearly fell. Mrs. Longstreet does not think the man fired to hit her, but in an effort to scare her.

ROBIN TANGLED IN HAT. Cecilie Conway, 15 years old, Lad s right in New York yesterday she will ong remember, caused by a harmless of flowers decorating her peach-basket hat. Miss Conway didn't know what to make of the tugging and twisting at her hat, which came down so far that she could see only straight in front of her. So she screamed for help and attracted the attention of Police Sergeant Conningham, who was passing on horseback. He found the girl trying to get her hat off, while the robin was attempting to fly, but not until Cunningham took a hand could the mix-up be straightened Then Miss Conway harried home. The robin became a prisoner and was lodged in a cage in the Yonkers police station, probably to spend the remainder of its days.

BANK GUARANTEE LAW. The office of the comptroller of the currency, it is said, is greatly pleased statement comparing the condition of Oklahoma national banks, as given by the reports up to April 28. It is held to show that the national banks in Oklahoms are not being injured by the operation of the "bank guarantee law," under which the state banks operate. There has been a decrease of 67 banks since a year ago and a decease of 28 banks since the last call for statements on February 5. Individual deposits show a loss of $721,973 since the previous call but a gain of $641,339 over a year ago. The statement shows a decrease in loans and discounts since the previous call of $635,ince a year ago, of $1,385,890 The total resources show a loss of $3,060,-865 since the previous call and a loss of $2,422,336 from a year ago.

the beach and indulged his fancy for an ocean bath without procuring the customary costume, while thousands were parading the boardwaik under the electric lights last night. A squad of reserves rushed the Philadelphian to jail without giving him an opportunity to put on his street attire. In police court next morning Judge Keflar gave the prisoner the alternative of paying a fine of $200 or serving ninety days in the county prison. He went to jail.

Smallpox Caused Riot.

Philadelphia, May 21.—A case of small-oox in the negro quarter at 15th and Kater streets yesterday caused a riot. Followers of the departed negro prophet, J. H. Crowdy, attempted to rescue members of their sect and police were rushed to the scene to prevent them from getting within the territory roped off by the health officials. The reserves of 16 districts were hurried to the peighborhood and only by such an overwhelming phow of force, were the frenzied negroes quelled.

Plowling into a Big Cave.

York. Pa., May 21.—While two men were plowing a field on the farm of William Miller, a short distance west of the city, one of their mules suddenly dropped almost out of sight. The snimel was extricated with difficults and comments of the plant of the princess and police were removed to the point of the princess and police were rushed to the peighborhood and only by such an overwhelming phow of force, were the frenzied negroes quelled.

dropped almost out of sight. The sni mal was extricated with difficulty, and it was then found that it had broken through into a cave. The cavern, which is about 12 feet deep, seems to extend through the limestone formation for a considerable distance, parallel with the Codorus creek close by, but it has not vet been explored.

Prince de Bearn has lost his suit in Baltimore against his father-in-law, Ross R. Winans, and F. C. Latrobe, trustees, to obtain absolute possession of his wife's estate of $300,000. The bill was dismissed on the grounds that no alterior motives had been proven to the action taken by the trustees and that as the prince was satisfied at the time the present arrangement was made and entered no demurrer, this was sufficient to prevent him from undoing that arrangement. It is likely that the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

The battle to prevent another such army of in'ants going down before the scourge of germs in Chicago next year was augmented yesterday by Health Commissioner W. A. Evans, when he prepared a "file of facts" on what can be accomplished to decrease infant mortal ity if all milk is pasteur'zed properly. This compilation is to be presented be-fore the Council Committee on Health. Some of the things which the Health Department will demonstrate before the committee are as follows: Of the to'al deaths in this city-30,-548-the infant mortality was almost one-third.

The rate of infant mortality was 4 47 per cent, per 1000 of population, 1 10 per cent lower than New York, which had an infant death rate of 24
